Today to begin our message I want to do something that I rarely do! – Movie Clip.

Mark 14 is our text

We are once again in the final week of the life of Jesus – Calling this the Greatest Week in History

A)Greatest act of love, greatest sacrifice, the greatest Victory – Sin/death/ Satan Conquered!

B)Smack dab in the middle of that week something happens that was so significant – that it is mentioned in three of the four gospels and Jesus himself forever attaches it to the story of the gospel.

Rd v.1-11

After two days it was the Passover and the Feast of Unleavened Bread. And the chief priests and the scribes sought how they might take Him by trickery and put Him to death. <sup>2</sup> But they said, “Not during the feast, lest there be an uproar of the people.” Interesting that – The whole Passover feast was about Him – Pointed to Him – the one sacrifice that would save many.

<sup>3</sup> And being in Bethany at the house of Simon the leper, as He sat at the table, a woman came having an alabaster flask of very costly oil of spikenard. Then she broke the flask and poured it on His head. <sup>4</sup> But there were some who were indignant among themselves, and said, “Why was this fragrant oil wasted? <sup>5</sup> For it might have been sold for more than three hundred denarii and given to the poor.” And they criticized her sharply.

<sup>6</sup> But Jesus said, “Let her alone. {Love that-}Why do you trouble her? She has done a good work for Me.

For you have the poor with you always, and whenever you wish you may do them good; but Me you do not have always. <sup>8</sup> She has done what she could. She has come beforehand to anoint My body for burial. <sup>9</sup> Assuredly, I say to you, wherever this gospel is preached in the whole world, what this woman has done will also be told as a memorial to her.”

<sup>10</sup> Then Judas Iscariot, one of the twelve, went to the chief priests to betray Him to them. <sup>11</sup> And when they heard it, they were glad, and promised to give him money. So he sought how he might conveniently betray Him.
