Chapter 4 of Philippians, Verse 14. Nevertheless you have done well that you shared in my distress. <sup>15</sup> Now you Philippians know also that in the beginning of the gospel, when I departed from Macedonia, no church shared with me concerning giving and receiving but you only. {Financial support} <sup>16</sup> For even in Thessalonica you sent aid once and again for my necessities. <sup>17</sup> Not that I seek the gift, but I seek the fruit that abounds to your account. {Giving results in fruitfulness} <sup>18</sup> Indeed I have all and abound. I am full, having received from Epaphroditus the things sent from you, a sweet-smelling aroma, an acceptable sacrifice, well pleasing to God. {How God sees our giving from the right heart – a sweet smelling aroma – acceptable sacrifice that is well pleasing to God }

<sup>19</sup> And my God shall supply all your need according to His riches in glory by Christ Jesus. <sup>20</sup> Now to our God and Father be glory forever and ever. Amen.

A) Paul used in similar expression in Acts 20 when he was meeting with the Elders of the Church in Ephesus.

When Henry III, one of the great Bavarian kings, first came into power, he was burdened by the responsibilities and demands of being king.

Feeling pressure on all sides, he finally walked away from the throne and went to a monastery.

“I want to contemplate God and worship the Lord,” he said upon arrival at the monastery

The Monk who greeted him replied in this way:

“Understand this, Henry,” “The first requirement of a monk is that he be in total submission. A monk’s life is not his own. Can you submit yourself to the Lord by trusting me?” “Yes,” said Henry.

“Then go back to the throne. I am instructing you to rule and serve where God planted you.”

Henry did, indeed, return to the throne, becoming one of the greatest German kings of history.
